FOR ALL WHO LIKE TO KNOW THIS KIND OF STUFF:

This is the WINDSWEPT, published by and for the members of the SHIRE OF WINDKEEP, of the SOCIETY FOR CREATIVE ANACHRONISM, INC.

Subscription rates are $8.00 per year (12 issues).

It is NOT an official publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., and does not attempt to delineate SCA policy. Which is fortunate, since this particular issue is the product of a deranged (and highly overworked) arts & sciences minister's mind.

Everyone is invited to attend Windkeep fighter practices, which are held Thursdays at 5:30 PM, at the Sunken Gardens in Lions Park. Call Lord Thorman to make sure we haven't changed the time on short notice.

ARMORER'S GUILD AND PELL PRACTICE

Every Tuesday night there will be Armorer's Guild and Pell Practice (what's a pell? It's a practice dummy) at Lord Mlodn's house, starting at around 5:30 pm. No armor necessary -- you don't need your armor to practice the shots---here you can either work on the shots outside, or make your armor inside. Lord Mlodn has a well-stocked workshop for anyone's armor projects. For more information, contact Lord Thorman (634-0224) or Lord Mlodn (637-8168).

UNSER HAFEN DANCE PRACTICE

Dance practice is every 2nd and 4th Mondays (July 10 and 24, this month) at the Harmony Presbyterian Church (400 Boardwalk Drive in Ft. Collins), from 7:00 PM until we finish---or are finished. Come learn some dances for fun! After practice, everyone usually socializes for a while at Perkins. Garb is encouraged but not required. For more information, contact Lady Catriona at (303) 226-2018. Contact Lady Maeve (632-8938) or Lady Renate (637-8168) for car-pooling from Windkeep.

On Sunday, July 9, Lady Elaine will once again hold the Annual Valynwoode Picnic and Rock Climbing Romp at the Vedauwoo Picnic Area. The fun starts at 10:00 AM.

Don't forget to bring the following: garb suitable for outdoor wear, your own meat to grill, a covered dish to share, and your water-pistols!

THE SHIRE POPULACE MEETING WILL BE HELD AT THIS EVENT---PLEASE ATTEND.

For more information, contact Lady Elaine of Valynwoode at 634-2037

UNSER HAFEN FIGHTER PRACTICE

Fighter practice in Unser Hafen takes place on Sundays, from 1:30 to whenever, on all weekends that have good weather and don't conflict with a local event. Practice is held at Spring Creek Park in Fort Collins. They have loaner armor and willing teachers, and are a great bunch to fight with in general. ## Guidelines for Non-Combatants on the Fighting Field

This guide is just that, a guide and not a set of steadfast rules or laws. In some cases they are based on the "Rules of the List". What I have written here is based on years of experience as a fighter, healer, and marshall. These guidelines are intended for everyone that will be on the fighting field as a non-fighter. These roles might be as follows: Field Marshall, Herald, Healer, Water Bearer, Minister of the List, squire (not fighting at the moment) or consort. I have found that for many "non-fighters", they are not totally familiar with the proper etiquette and customs of the fighting field. To become more familiar it would be advantageous to review the "Marshall's Handbook". After reviewing this, as well as the rules of the list, you should be ready to receive your authorization card.

REMEMBER: The marshall is in charge of the field. This position of responsibility is an extension of the crown, it that as defined by Corpora, "the marshall is the King's representative on the field". In essence all that happens on the field is the responsibility of the marshall in charge. What this means for the non-combat is that your presence on the field is with marshall's permission. In case of the tournament field your presence will be under more direct control than say war or melee situations.

TOURNAMENT FIELD - Your actions and role on the field will differ slightly from the tournament field to the melee field. To begin with your very presence on the field is determined by the marshall in charge. This can vary from marshall to marshall, but in all cases should be worked out prior to the start of the tournament or your assumption of the role you are to perform.

For the field herald who will be on the field at the start and end of each fight (in most cases), the working relationship is very important and depends on continued communication. The marshall must be able to communicate to the herald when their presence on the field is needed. (This applies to everyone entering on the field.) This "form" of communication may be nothing more than a simple nod of the head, or a prearranged gesture. This prearranged gesture might be an indication of the victor (Marshall's please note: Many consider it in bad taste to point the business end of your marshalling staff at either fighter as an indication of their victory.) or to introduce the combatants.

For all others their presence on the field is determined by the marshall. Healers should not be too quick to jump onto the field, as many fighters have prearranged death scenarios. Water bearers can usually provide aid to the fighters after they come off the field. If needed they will be called to the field. Usually a simple gesture by the marshall will allow a squire, consort, or other assistant onto the field. Usually the minister of the lists does not enter the field, but communicates with the marshall either off the field or through the field herald.

At no time should someone not a marshall be on the field while the fighting is going on. What this ultimately means is that if you're going to be on the fighting field you must be aware of what is going on and around the field at all times.

WAR AND MELEE FIELD - The melee field often appears to be in a state of chaos. Communication to all participants is inherently more difficult just due to the size and nature of the fighting. Because of this non-combat participants must be aware of what is going on at all times. They must be able to perform their assigned task for the role they are portraying and at the same time not be in the way of the fighting or be the cause for harm to either themselves or other participants.

Each non-combatant on the field assumes a slightly more expanded role on the melee field. Where the field marshall is responsible on the tournament field for safety and condition of the fighter and his armor: this responsibility is spread to other non-combatants on the melee field. A water bearer should, when forcing their water and aid on the fighters, also take a look at the overall condition of the fighter. This includes his physical condition as well as the condition of his armor. Often times during melees armor will be damaged or lost without the fighter knowing of the loss. Sometimes in the heat of battle they may have received an injury or become over-heated; conditions that may become serious if not attended to. As a water bearer or healer you can talk to the fighter and bring this condition to mind. If necessary bring a condition that needs remedy to the field marshal if the fighter doesn't or isn't able to respond. Remember though, it is the marshal's ultimate decision as to who remains on the field.

DRESS: Your choice of clothing ultimately should be chosen for safety on the field, with obvious consideration towards personal personae. Briefly things you should consider are ease and speed of movement and protection from the elements (weather and the physical field itself) Choice of clothing that promotes ease of movement (without getting tangled up in sagebrush) is more important for wars and melees where the chance of getting caught "in the action" is higher than on the tournament field. Comfortable and good fitting foot wear are very important in these situations. A hat and sunscreen are other items to consider for your continued personal comfort. In the Outlands we request that to help prevent accidents that no one have live steel (bladed weapons) on the field. If you are carrying equipment on the field either as a water bearer or as a healer make it easy to carry without getting in the way.

HOLD! - Anyone may call hold to stop the fighting. This should only be done for a valid reason such as an armor malfunction, dropped weapon (Remember that if they are carrying another weapon no hold should be called.), an unauthorized presence on the field (animal or human), or a potentially dangerous situation not recognized by the marshal on the field. The calling of hold should not be abused!

I hope in the above ramblings that I have provided a basic sense of direction for those that wish to participate as a non-combatant. Your specific duties on the field will be more detailed than the mear mentions afforded them in the afore mentioned pages. These duties you will learn as part of your non-combatant role.

On behalf of the fighters, Thank you.

Kingdom Earl marshal,

UNSER HAFEN PLUNDER TOURNEY!

JULY 8TH, A.S. XXIV

OTHERHILL'S LITTLE WAR

The Shire of Otherhill's Little War is planned for the weekend of July 1-2 on Little Mountain, south of Rock Springs, WY. The site opens at 6:00pm on June 30. Although it is a wet site, there is NO water on the site---bring your own. This is a very primitive site and it is likely to be cool, so be prepared. Site fee is $1.00.

The weekend's schedule is loose, but some of the planned activities may include: Dragon and the George, Meanest Mother Melee, Forest Melee, Open Field Melee, Bardic Circle, Archery, Chess, a Potluck Feast, and whatever else an inventive mind can devise.

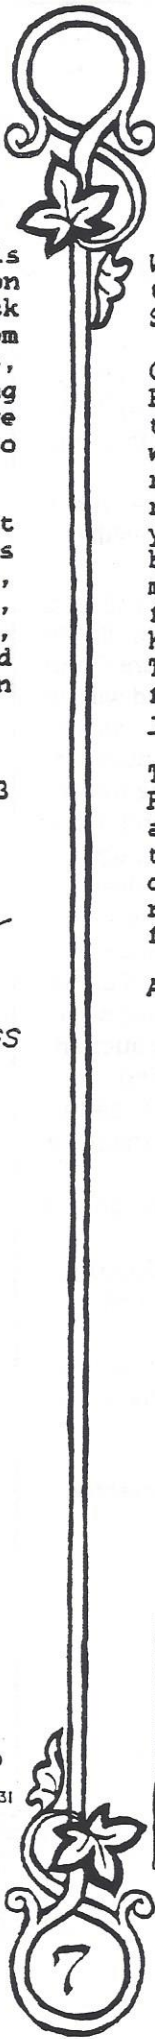

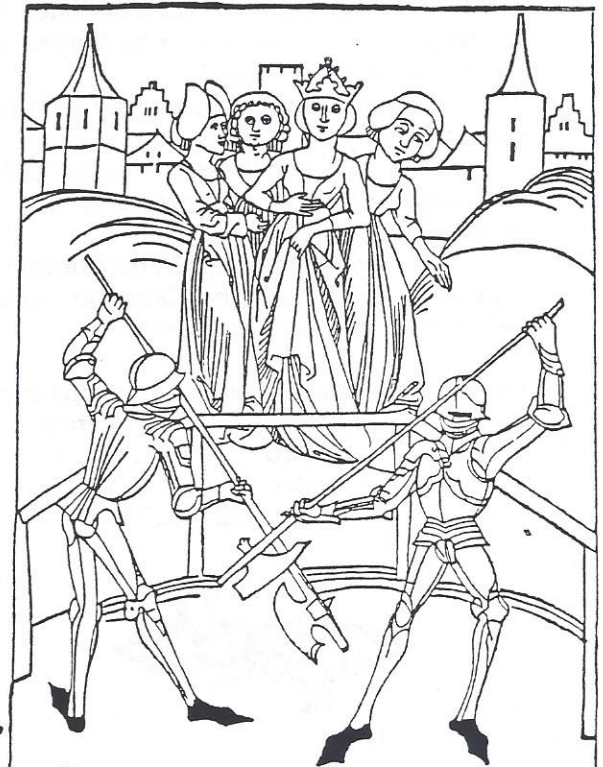

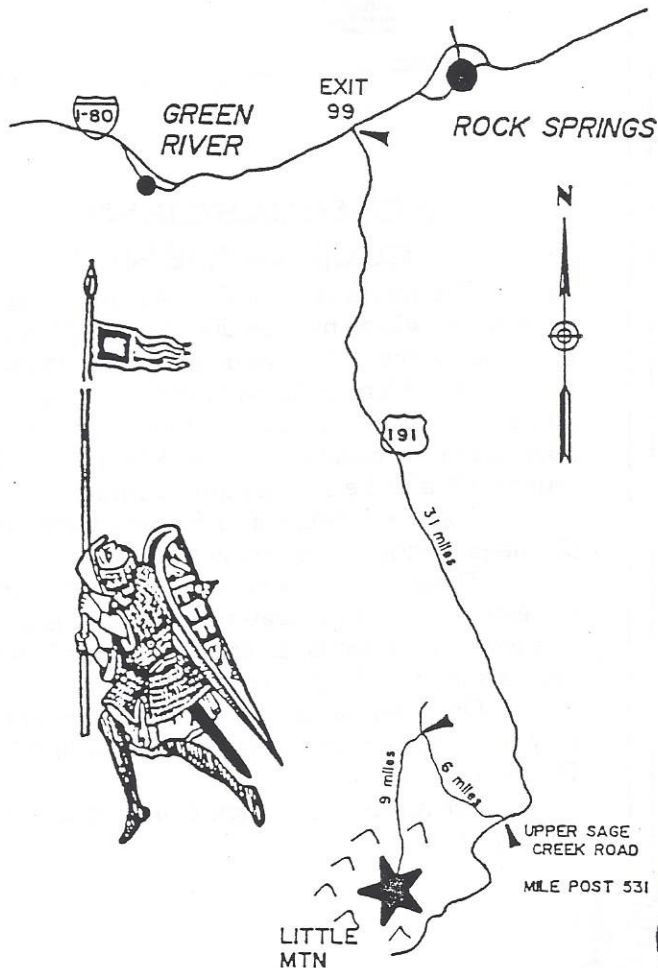

AUTOCRAT: Sir Sigmund Schwarzwald
James Thomas (307) 787-6143

Well, here it is, July, and not a tourney in sight, very close anyway. So I've decided to hold one.

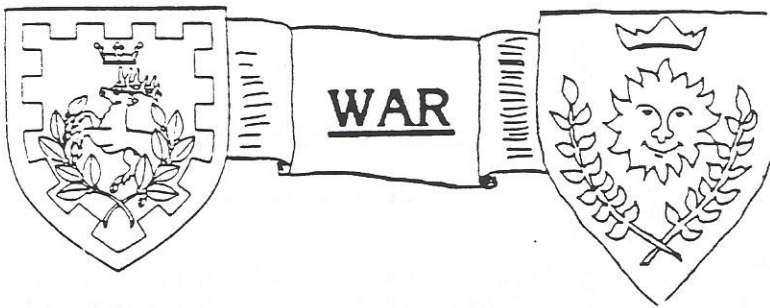

On July 8th we will be having a PLUNDER TOURNEY. What is a plunder tourney? It's like this: bring a prize worth between $5.00 and $10.00 as your ransom. We will be having a round robing drawn weapons list. If you win, you get to take one of the prizes that belongs to the vanquished. What this means is that there will be a lot of fighting and many people will take home prizes, not just the top winner. The prize is your ransom, and the list fee; it doesn't have to be expensive, just not obviously junk.

The tourney will be at Spring Creek Park (in Fort Collins) and has shade and restrooms very near; for fighters that wish to shower before going home or to the Caer Galen Middle Eastern revel that night, there will be some folk there to aid you in your search.

AUTOCRAT: Lord Kevin MacKinnon
(303) 221-0850

OUTLANDS - ATENVELDT WAR

Were you among the first at Pennsic I? The first Estrella? Be there to hear the First Clash of the Outlands forces against those of Atenveldt this July 14-17.

This is a beautiful but primitive site with a fully stocked lake for free fishing (NO SWIMMING). Bring water, lots of water and warm clothing for mountain nights. Prepare for extremely primitive camping and if at all possible plan to set up in the daylight. This is a completely wooded area and deadwood is in abundance. The fire hazard will be great and all fires must be contained in a pit and well watched. Bring a shovel and a rake for this purpose. A little caution will preserve this site for the future.

The area has it's share of cactus and boots are suggested for everyone. All pets must be leashed and children will need to be supervised.

Again this is the San Juan Mountains, come prepared. There is a small local store about 5 miles from the site, but only necessities are carried there.

Mostly woods battles are planned, with some other scenarios as well. A quest, hugging auction, bardic circle and other surprises are planned.

Merchants are welcome but encouraged to get reservations in early due to limited space, a $10.00 fee will be charged.

We stress this is a discreetly wet site, period containers only!!

The site fee has been lowered to $5.00 for members, $8.00 for non-members and children under twelve half-price.

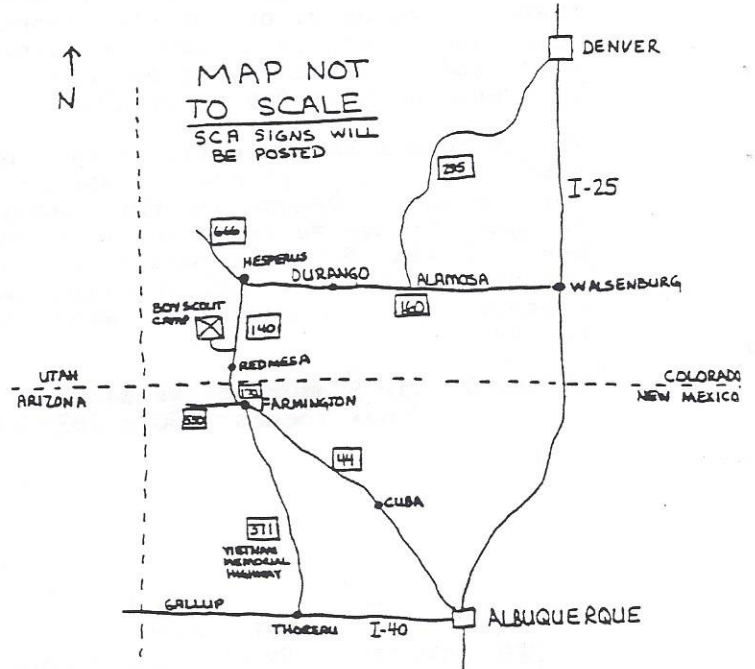

Remember the site is 31 miles from Farmington and about 25 miles from Durango. Signs will be well posted from both directions.

ST. SEBASTIAN'S TOURNAMENT

The fourth annual St. Sebastian's archery tournament will be held on July 22 and 23 AS XXIV at the same site as last year, (near Jefferson, CO).

The Archery tournament will consist of a qualifying Royal Round on Saturday and an IKAC final round on Sunday. Royal Rounds and IKAC rounds will also be shot as time permits.

For the fighters and fencers there will be activities if enough interest is displayed.

Those of you who made it last year will remember; there is no water and the site is at 9600 ft. elevation. What is different this year is we will have a shrine to St. John in attendance.

One and all are encouraged to come and play with the Canton of Hawks Hollow and House Thistlekeep.

For more information call Lord Erik (303) 452-0717.

Demo Update

On April 27th of this year the Shires of Windkeep and Unser Hafen presented a demo at Thompson Valley High School in Loveland, Colorado. The demo presentation included displays on herbal lore, needlework, costumes, weapons and armor-making, music, and heraldry as well as many other things. It was followed by a fighting demo and questions from the students. Below is a letter recently received by the Shire:

Dear Bonnie:

Please forgive the tardiness of this note, but I haven't seen Fred for several days and I wanted to talk with him before writing this note. He said that you could convey our thanks to the Cheyenne group of SCA for their effort and time in coming to visit our classes a couple of weeks ago and I certainly would appreciate you doing that.

The kids very much enjoyed the table talks and set ups indoors, although most of them said twice as long, to look carefully and touch, would have been better. I agree. And we got the feeling of how much preparation went into all of your presentations when we saw the combatants and watched them prepare for that. An additional hour would have done it!

Many of our students took the SCA cards that Tehri gave me, and I'm returning the extras with Fred. Again, thanks for helping us educate our moderns about ye goode olde days.

-----Richard Rush

The shire presented yet another demo on June 1st for the 3rd-graders at Alta Vista Elementary School here in town. The demo again had displays as well as talks on costumes, herbal lore, needlework, children's roles in the Middle Ages, weapons & armor-making, music, and castle life. It was followed by fighting and lessons in medieval dancing. The children asked random questions and took great interest in the presentation.

We have the heartfelt thanks of the teachers and children, and have been invited to come back next year.

IS YOUR LIFE TOO HECTIC?
EVERYDAY EXCITEMENT GETTING YOU DOWN?
ARE YOU WISHING FOR A NICE, QUIET
EVENING OF MINDLESS TEDIUM?

Then you're invited to LADY MAEVE'S
LASAGNA DINNER AND MAIL-MAKING PARTY!

Yes, that's right, Lady Maeve is too busy (doing other people's stuff) to finish her own chain mail hauberk. So, for only 45 minutes (at least) of time spent clipping links, closing links, opening links, making 5-link groups, and/or knitting the mail together, she will provide you with a heaping plate of home-made lasagna ("pasta is period, isn't it?") and accompanying munchies. If you've never made chain-mail before, this is an ideal opportunity to learn how easy (and boring) it is!

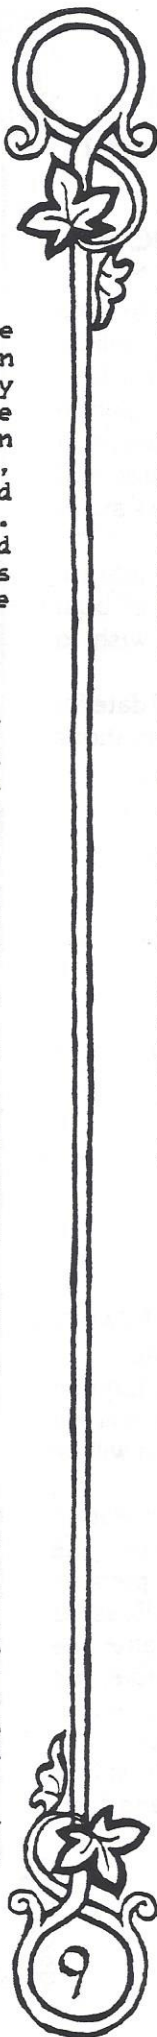

To keep the evening from getting too boring, we'll be showing several classic medieval-theme movies (the kinds where you can see chain-mail in action!) on the VCR.

DATE: Saturday, July 22, 1989

TIME: Dinner at 6:00pm, or thereabouts

PLACE: Maeve's house, 4301 Hayes Avenue, Cheyenne, WY (phone # 632-8938)

Please RSVP by the 21st or there might not be any lasagna for you. All supplies will be provided except for pliers---bring 2 sets. Those adamantly refusing to help will be charged $2.00 (exceptions probable---negotiate with Maeve).

ATTENTION ATTENTION

SCHEDULING DIFFICULTIES.

We have running water and toilets at both sites and there will be showers available at Yewwood Manor after the Tourney.

THIRD ANNUAL THREE HAWKS TOURNAMENT

Here we are again and summer camping events have not even begun, but we will keep reminding you to go to the Three Hawks Tournament on August 12-13. The "new improved" Three Hawks Tournament — hopefully the things we wish to change including the tournament rules and the land will be done by tournament time so that we can accomodate more people with less hassle. If anyone had any problems with our tournament last year please tell me, because Hawks Hollow would love to see everyone there. Just a reminder — Three Hawks Tournament on August 12-13 in the Black Forrest in Monument, Colorado. More next month.....

GRAND RUSTIC III

Fighters, fencers and archers—the incipient shire of Glen Ora challenges you to a contest again, to see who can be the Iron Lord! Or Lady! On August 26-27th, we are holding Grand Rustic III.

We have fun and games planned for all, some guaranteed to get you dirty. (bring a change of clothes for the feast) The Iron Lord competitors will participate in fighting or fencing, archery, knife and star, muckle coo shotput, duck and goose quarter-staff melee. (rumor has it the ducks and geese are arming themselves!) This is definitely a wet site, plenty of camping and running water, but due to drought no open fires.

There is a feast of gargantuan proportions planned, including beef burgundy, duck in currant sauce, and of course our legendary salad bar. A Sunday morning breakfast will be served and sandwich fixings and feast leftovers will be put out Sunday afternoon. Also we will again be holding the auction for the benefit to the Kingdom, so please bring items to donate.

Fees are the same as last year, $2.00 per person site, $7.00 feast, smalls under 12 half price, under 6 free. $3.00 site fee for those who just come up for the day. We are limiting the number of feast reservations to 100, due to site limitations, so get your reservations in early as there may not be reservations at the door. If available at the door fees for feast are $10.00 adult, children half-price. Make all checks out to SCA Glen Ora.

To Glen Ora- Take I25 to I80, head east 20 miles, take the Hillsdale exit follow signs and head east 2 miles, turn left on County Rd 142 for 5 miles go around big curve in road, (SLOW DOWN) and site is big green house after the 25 MPH sign.

Camping will start the night of the 25th.

PROUD KNIGHT, FAIR LADY

translated by Naomi Lewis, illustrated
by Angela Barrett
Viking Kestrel, Inc (1989)
ISBN 0-670-82656-1 $19.95

I never expected to find myself searching for medieval books in the children's section of The Stone Lion in Ft. Collins, but after seeing a beautifully illustrated fairy-tale book (it was like a medieval manuscript) owned by Baron Dirik, I decided to try my luck. What I discovered went beyond pretty illustrations.

The book I found, Proud Knight, Fair Lady, just happened to be an English translation of the Twelve Lays of Marie de France. Not much is known of Marie other than she wrote her lays in the latter half of the 12th century, lived in France but spent part of her life in England, and was likely of high social status.

All twelve stories are presented in this book, and in true, timeless (after all, they're at least 700 years old) fairy-tale fashion, the stories are of valiant knights, fair ladies, swan messengers, magic ships, hawk-princes, and cities where "every single house and hall and tower seemed to be made of silver". The stories include one in which a knight changes into a wolf---a good wolf, strangely enough, one of the few to be found in medieval literature.

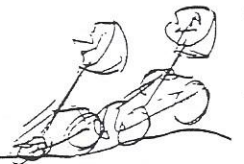

One thing to remember is that these stories, at the time, were meant to be told to an adult audience. Outside of some of the difficult-to-pronounce names, I think reading aloud these tales would delight SCA'ers of all ages---the stories are told as though Marie de France were speaking before you. In addition, the tales indirectly tell much about the customs, thoughts, and desires of the medieval mind.

A last note about the book---it has beautiful illustrations!
